

galerie gmurzynska

Attersee am Zugersee

“An Attersee painting is always a feast, a happening, a boiling over with a new pictorial language, an inventive symbolism of life, love and nature. His paintings are to be seen, to be heard, smelled, tasted, and loved.”

Max Hollein

Director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York

Galerie Gmurzynska
Vorstadt 14 | 6300 Zug
Opening September 28th 2024

Press Contact: Mathias Rastorfer
mathias.rastorfer@gmurzynska.com
+41 44 226 70 70

On the occasion of Zuger Kunstnacht, Galerie Gmurzynska is proud to present a solo exhibition of Christian Ludwig Attersee in its space at the shores of Zugersee. The exhibition showcases the most recent work of the genre-defying Austrian painter.

Attersee's independent trailblazing creative attitude passed through the modes of Viennese Actionism, Fluxus, international Pop and Dada in order to subvert them with virtuosic technique and imaginative and humorous invention always with an eye to the themes of consumption, love, male beauty and food.

This exhibition at Galerie Gmurzynska follows his celebrated reemergence in New York after two solo exhibitions there last year as well as the 2023 Los Angeles restaging of the 1987 artist's carnival "Luna Luna," featuring Attersee's – also a champion sailor – boat swing ride.

- 1940 born in Bratislava, Slovakia, Attersee's artistic journey began during his youth when he moved to Austria near Linz and began writing novels, composing music, and creating comics at Lake Attersee
- 1966 Christian Ludwig Attersee adopts his iconic surname ATTERSEE after the lake
- 1966 first solo show in Berlin is followed by exhibitions at the avant-garde Galerie nächst St. Stephan in Vienna and Galerie Bruno Bischofberger in Zürich
- 1977 representation at documenta 6 in Kassel
- 1981 exhibition at the Royal Academy, London
- 1986 exhibition at the Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam and the Nationalgalerie in Berlin, curated by Rudi Fuchs
- 1984 representation of Austria at the Venice Biennale, organized by Hans Hollein
- 1987 Attersee, Joseph Beuys, Georg Baselitz, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Salvador Dali, Keith Haring, David Hockney, Rebecca Horn, Roy Lichtenstein and Jean Tinguely participate in "Luna Luna" carnival by Andre Heller
- 1997 exhibition at the Albertina in Vienna
- 2005 design of the stage set for Stravinsky's "Petrouchka" at the State Opera in Vienna
- 2008 direction of the opera "Salome" by Richard Strauss in Bremen
- 2019 major retrospective at the Belvedere 21 in Vienna

The lasting impact of Attersee on contemporary art can be summed up by contemporary star Jamian Juliano-Villani proclaiming: "He is a genius. We have decided he is more advanced than us."

This exhibition is accompanied by a fully illustrated monographic catalogue published by Kunstforum Wien with contributions from Max Hollein, Ingrid Brugger, Daniela Gregori and Rainer Metzger.

Christian Ludwig Attersee, Boat swing ride. Luna Luna, Hamburg, Germany, 1987; Serviert mit Speisekugeln, 1968. Mixed media on cardboard; Schazplatz mit Tropfen, 1977. Mixed media on cardboard; Mopsbüstenhalter, 1967. Acrylic and lacquer on canvas; Schattensammer, 2023. Acrylic on canvas, artist's frame.

For more information on the gallery and its artists and activities please visit www.gmurzynska.com